Dedication

WITH GREAT ADMIRATION, SINCERITY AND RESPECT
WE DEDICATE THIS BOOK TO ONE WHOM WE HAVE COME TO LOVE AND CHERISH AS A TRUE FRIEND
AND UNDERSTANDING ADVISOR OF YOUTH, OUR PRINCIPAL, J. IRVING BROOKS, SR.

Irving Brooks

Foreword

The school year is over, and our many activities that have filled every moment are almost ended. Soon we shall part, and go our respective ways in life. Though not being completely separated from one another, the daily contact and companionship which Highland Springs has afforded us will be missing.

This year has been an eventful one for all of us. To keep alive the memories of familiar faces and friendly smiles, hard work and fun, the Junior-Senior Dance, the spirit of cooperation shown by both teachers and students, and many other very real but intangible things, this issue of THE HIGHLANDER is published.

Let this HIGHLANDER stimulate not only our memories, but our ideals and ambitions. May this record of our accomplishments, many of which seemed at first impossible, spur us on to even greater tasks in the world before us.

WITHOUT the unselfish devotion and constant help of Mrs. Creeger, many of our accomplishments would have remained undone. During staff meetings, senior play practice, and many other activities, she gladly worked overtime with us and for us, and then drove us home in her car.

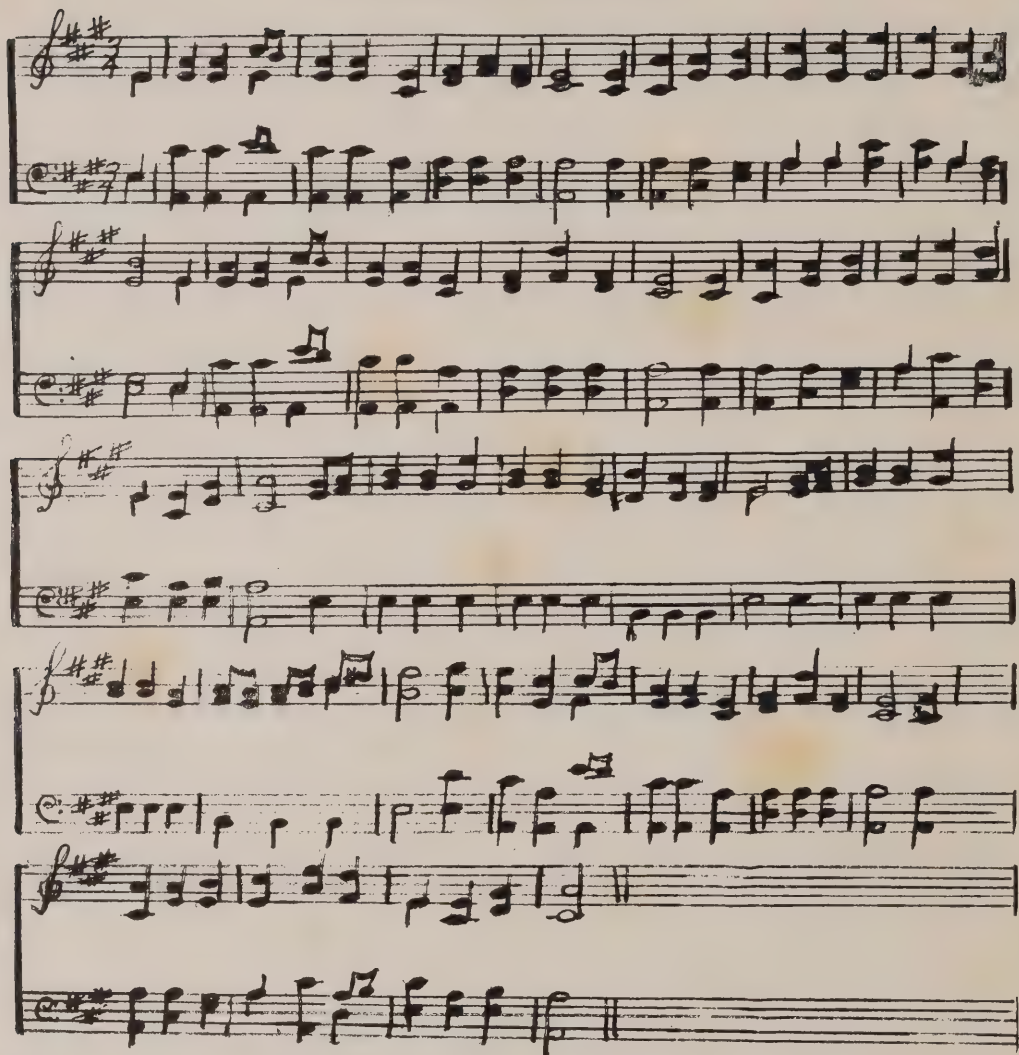

We'll always be thankful that Mrs. Creeger's pop had two cars and let her have one to run around in. One of our most vivid impressions is of Mrs. C. dashing back and forth between the stadium and home-ec cottage with a cargo of steaming hot dogs and rolls. Her energy seemed endless. She is the only woman we have ever seen who could pull with one hand, push with the other, and still keep up with her own job, all at the same time. It is with regretful hearts that we say farewell to one of the most energetic, good-natured, and well-liked Senior Sponsors in the history of this school.

Mrs. Allan David Creeger

ALMA MATER

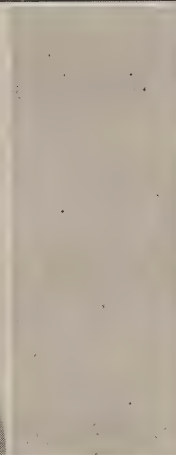

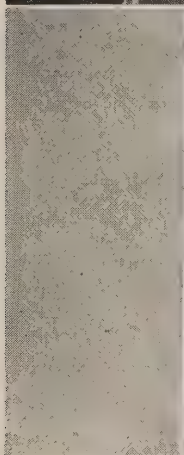

Each laddie and lassie lauds thee in this song
Thy stories of valor urge them to stand strong.
Alma Mater, we'll remember the things that you've taught;
They'll strengthen our courage to do what we ought.

Highland Springs, we will crown thee with garlands sae fair
For in honor and glory, there's none to compare.
Thy legends of valor are known far and wide;
We'll love thee forever, and by thee abide.

Thy heroes are famed in their honor and might
They are sons of a school that e'er champion the right.
In battle the bravest of all; on the field
Fair play is our motto and never to yield.

BARBARA ALEXANDER

TEX ATKINSON

LOUIS BAKER

JUNE BANKS

RAMONA BECK

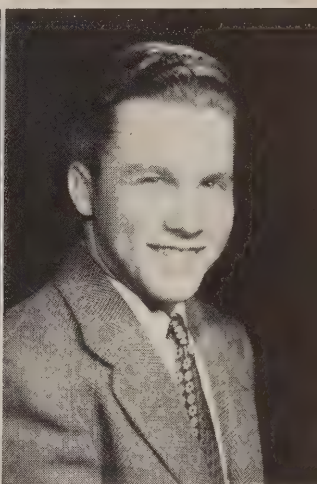

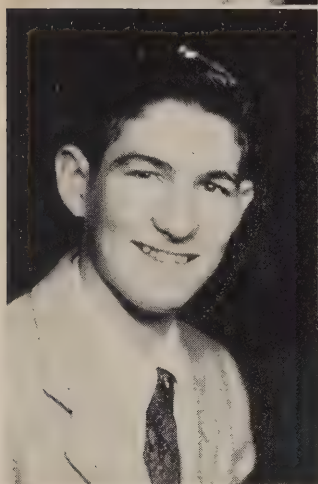

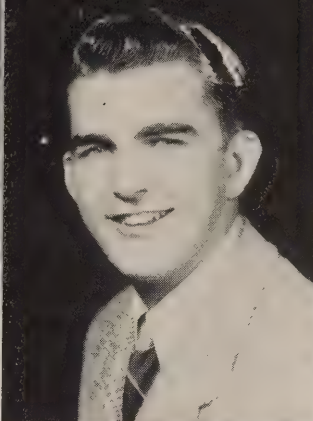

WALTER BENINGHOVE

CORDELIA BIDGOOD

JOHN BINNS

We will never forget Barbara's freckles, and the way she wasted time in study hall, saying the next day, "I just know I failed that algebra test. I just know it." . . . Tex was our rompin' fullback. "What care I, when I can lie and rest, kill time, and take life at its best." . . . Louis' wonderful cooperation as sound effects man in the senior play will long be remembered. In football he really held that line. . . . June can make a piano talk, and she wholeheartedly acted the part of Jane in the senior play. Other interests — the Derr Brothers. . . . Ramona always got to school early and did the last night's homework in the morning. She was an excellent artist and will probably be a magazine illustrator. . . . Walter played the part of a woman-hater in the senior play, but not in actual life. As business manager of THE HIGHLANDER he was always tangled up in subscription money, receipts, and "who paid whom how much." . . . Cordelia was a versatile girl — a member of the basketball team, active in promoting the play and yearbook advertising. . . . John haunted the gym every morning to be with his steady girl for the last few minutes before the day's work began. We all remember his love for baseball, and what a good pitcher he was.

HAZEL BOND
JOHN CAMPBELL

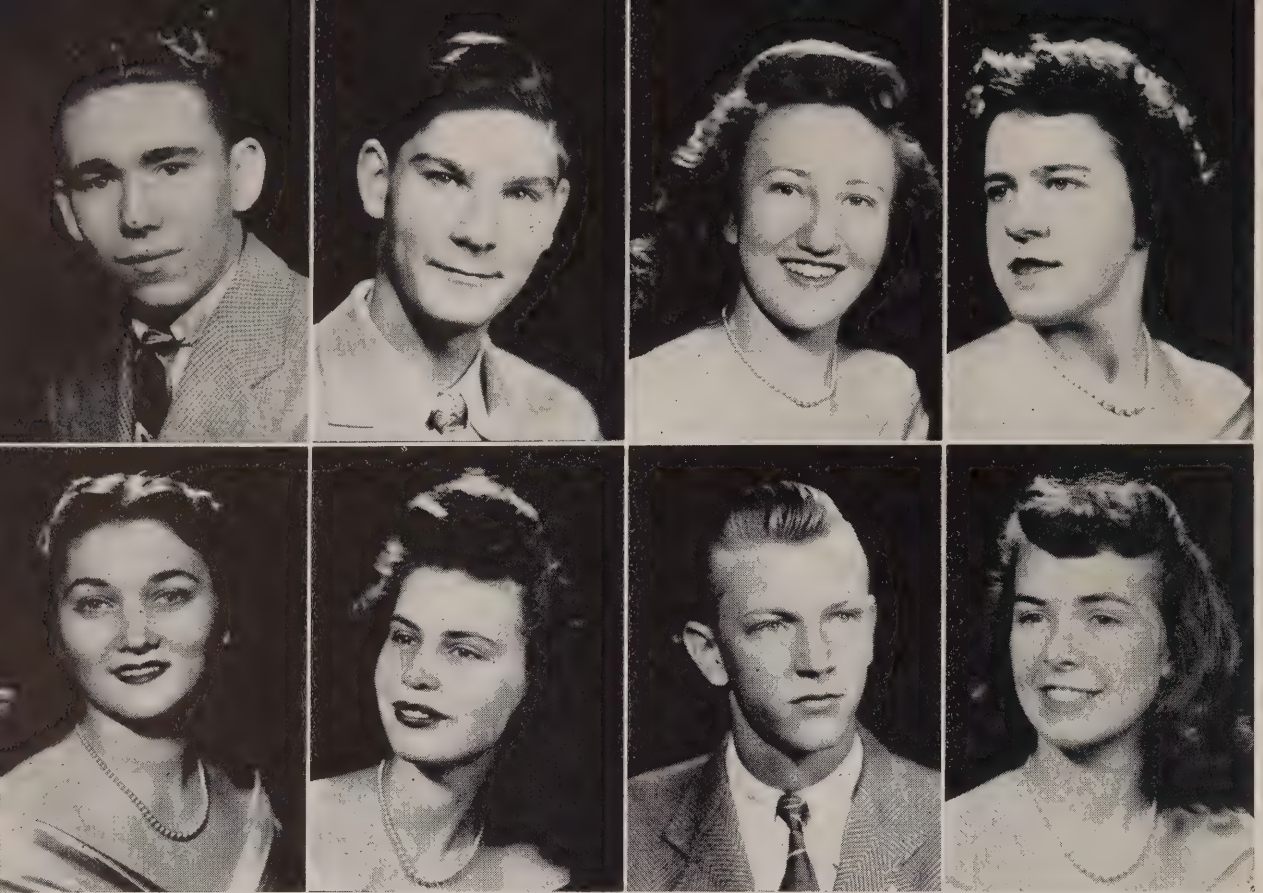

LEONARD BUNTING
MARIAN CARROLL

CHARLES BURCHAM
ELEANOR CLARK

MAXINE CALHOUN
BILLY COFFMAN

Hazel was honorary captain of girls' basketball and what a good forward. She was a swell person to know. . . . Leonard — oh! those big dark eyes. Quiet, he was, but he did his thinking to himself instead of aloud for the world to hear. . . . We'll always remember Charles' anecdotes in government class and the cheery smile with which he greeted us every morning. . . . Maxine was noted for her good-nature and dependability. And don't forget how she struggled over the ads for the annual! . . . Johnny's essays and poems, dry, wet, and corn, kept us in gales of laughter. He was otherwise known as Mr. Smudgely, the vacation-loving principal in the senior play. . . . We had another home ec student — Marian. Her cooking came in handy when the class sold hot dogs at the games. . . . Eleanor was a kind, understanding person who was liked by all of us. And what a willing worker for the Junior Red Cross she was. . . . There aren't many arguments that could have topped Billy's in government class. We won't forget his job as back-stage manager. Oh, those sound effects!

ROSEMARY COX
CHARLES DERR

MILDRED CROUCH
MARJORIE DYER

Archie, as captain of the basketball squad, was the best sport and most athletic boy in the Senior Class. He acted as our S. C. A. cash register. . . . James, who is better known as "Nutz," the "mad scientist," had such radical ideas about the English language; but few of us had his drawing ability. . . . Rosemary was our "star photographer" for the annual; she snapped just about everyone's picture. We envy her clear-thinking and skill in sports. . . . Mildred, whose majestic touch of the piano matches her good nature, was constantly pleading for names and addresses for the Service Committee. . . . Shirley had such a cute accent. And she must have used up a lot of yellow admits for being late to class. . . . A sweeter and more helpful secretary than Norma Jean couldn't be found. It isn't everyone who could have drawn so well in the "dummy copy" of THE HIGHLANDER. . . . School began at 9:15 for Charles, but in his quiet unassuming way he always accomplished a lot. Boy! could he jump for that basketball off the backboard. His familiar words, "How about going back and WALKING?" will always be remembered. . . . "As the stream shall never cease rippling, so shall Margie be forever giggling." "Say does my hair look all right?" She was a faithful Red Cross worker.

GEORGE GILLEN

THOMAS GILLIE

What nice naturally curly hair Merie had! It was the envy of us straight-haired gals. And we'll all remember how faithfully she stayed for basketball practice. . . . We had to look twice to see Betty Jo. My, but she was tiny, but kind and thoughtful of everyone. . . . Watt was our future candidate for Secretary of Agriculture. And if his family life is anything like it was in the senior play, his kids will have a stiff mark to live up to. . . . Phyllis was a girl with such a gentle spirit that she was admired by all of us. Remember how her black curls "bobbed" up and down when she walked? . . . "Maybe Dot wasn't fond of her books, but nevertheless, she's a queen in her looks." With her theatrical grease in one hand and lip rouge in the other, she could be found frequently improving the other's looks for the play. . . . How proud we were of Lewis when he won "honorable mention" in the National Science Talent Search! He'd always say, "Yes, I'll try" when he was asked to do anything, and he'd always get it done. . . . George is a future farmer, no doubt. When asked the difference between farming and agriculture, he said: "In farming, you really farm; in agriculture, you tell other people how." . . . It wasn't that Thomas didn't like school, but he looked forward all year to the time when he could take a dip in the "ole swimmin' hole" whenever he felt like it.

MARY LOUISE HOUSTON
WILFORD KIRBY

JOHNNY JOHNSON

RAYMOND JOHNSTON
LINWOOD LAYTON

What a roaring laugh we got from Hubert! Besides having a good sense of humor, he was just a good fellow all around. . . . And Mary Lou, too, was always jolly and a good sport. She really handled that third period study hall in a swell manner. . . . We'll remember Johnny, the other half of the cutest couple in the Senior Class, for his participation in all the sports, especially that long run at the Glen Allen Thanksgiving game. . . . In Raymond we have the future manager of the A. and P. Why did you have to be made to study, Ray? . . . Yes, Anne's the other half of the cutest couple in the Senior Class. In math, she would add where she was supposed to subtract, and vice-versa; then, after doing five or six pages, she would say, "Oh, my cowl!" . . . Wilford's quiet, industrious manner and earnest effort are what we'll remember about him. . . . Sonny — "The Voice" — Between crooning and presiding over the S. C. A., he kept himself pretty busy. . . . We'll never forget the sharp ties and socks Lin wore. He really did a swell job as president of the Senior Class. We can still see him with a roll in one hand and mustard in the other, yelling, "Hot dogs and drinks! Step right up and get yours."

CARL LINDSEY

CATHERINE LIPSCOMB

BILLY LITTERER

MARGARET McDOWELL

MARY ELLEN MICHAUX

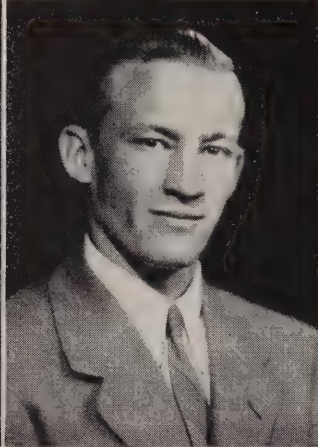

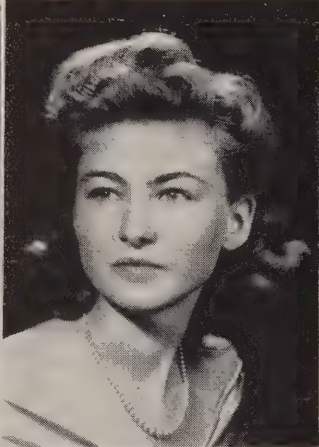

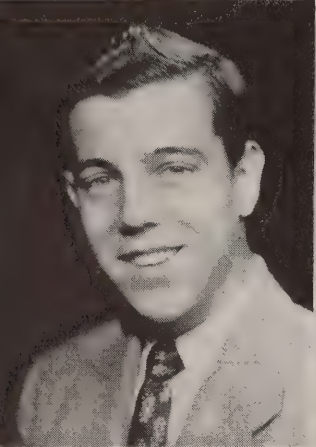

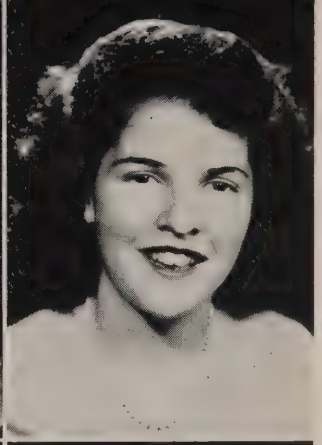

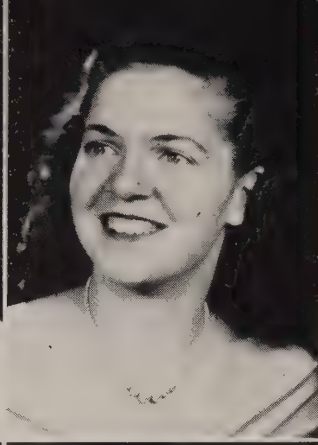

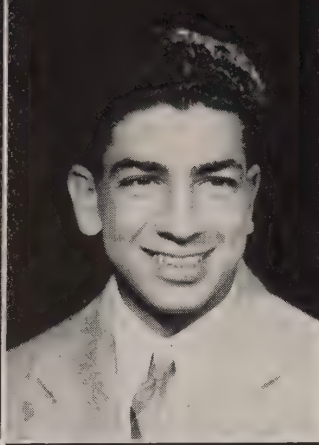

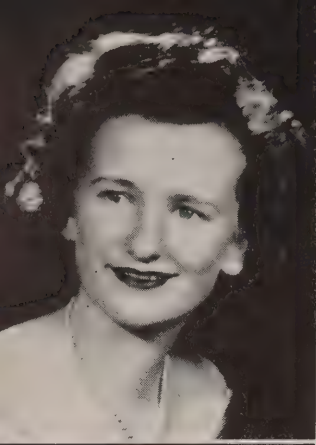

HERBERT MIHALCOE

EARLENE MUIRE

TYRUSS NUCKOLS

"Though Carl grumbled about his work, he was one senior who did not shirk." Catherine made a perfect Mrs. Jones in the play. And will we ever forget: "Who has those other four subscription books?" . . . Billy waited around for Hallie between classes. We'll also remember him for his dark, black, wavy hair that curled over his forehead, and for his mischievous grin. . . . Margaret was seldom seen without her two companions, Lillian and Dot, but she worked very well in the library without them. . . . We hope that some day Mary Ellen will be able to speak Spanish where people will understand her. She was willing to help in any way at all times, and did a super job with the properties for the play. . . . Herbert was the boy who wouldn't blindly accept government as it is. He'll probably start a branch of the Progressive Party in Virginia. . . . Earlene did a fine job as Senior Class Vice-President, which wasn't as soft a job as it sounds. Besides that, she's just cute. . . . Tyruss not only looks like a scholar — he is. His favorite subjects are those which allow ample opportunity for logical thinking (i. e. argument), like geometry and civics.

LILLIAN PARKER

JOE POLIS

JEAN POLLARD

VIVIAN POLLARD

COURTNEY PURVIS

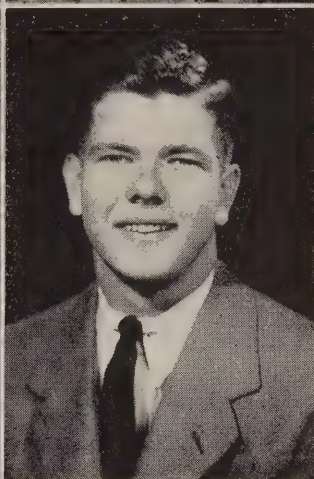

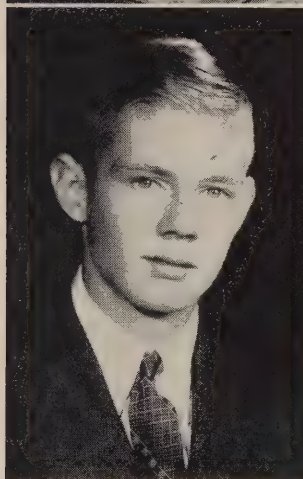

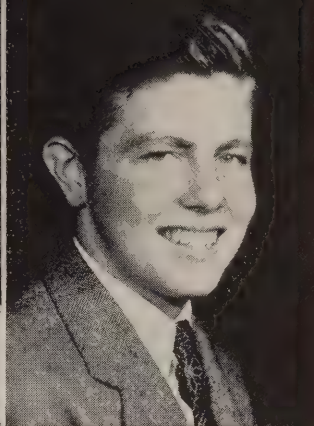

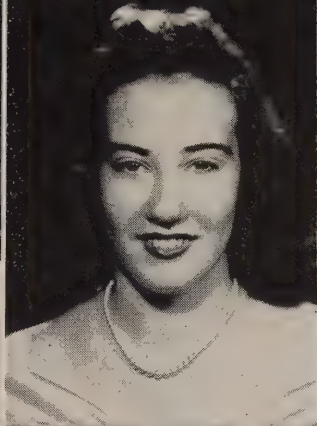

GWENDOLYN RICHARDS

ROY RICHARDSON

MARY SATTERWHITE

Lillian had a witty remark to offer about any subject you could mention. Did you ever see such good humor? . . . "Me, I wasn't talkin'." That was Joe! He was always up to something, and how disappointed, but good-natured, he was when the teachers saw through his thin excuses to leave the classroom when things got too dull. . . . Jean was often heard singing duets with her sister. And as our second period study hall teacher, we can still hear her say, "Keep quiet, Linwood." . . . Without Vivian's good prompting for the play, and being "Johnny-on-the-spot" for all rehearsals, the cast couldn't have gone through with it. And could she sing! . . . Courtney made friends with everyone, including the girls. His big moment in basketball came when he put the ball in the wrong basket, earning the title "minus-one" Purvis. . . . If we all had Gwen's love of humanity, wouldn't this be a wonderful world in which to live? Many envied her ability in public speaking. . . . Roy played some fine football during our last year. And he could always tease somebody about coming from the hills, without being ashamed to admit that he did too. . . . Mary thought that collecting ads was really fun! She has a sweet disposition, and such a cute way of saying things.

ELLEN SLACHTER
BILLY TAYLOR

MARGUERITE SMITH
PATSY TEASLEY

OTIS STITZER
BILLY TURNER

ALICE TAYLOR
JOYCE TYLER

Ellen didn't make any noise about it, but she really got things done. Like the grand job she did of ordering, and then selling, hot dogs and cokes at the games. . . . Marguerite was the one we always asked to cut our stencils for us. She was a really good office worker. . . . When Otis laughed, it was a laugh that "boomed" from the bottom of his feet to the top of his head. It took a lot of endurance to stand out on the road in "fair and foul" weather, but he did it. . . . "Alice may be small, and not very tall, but oh! how quickly she comes when someone calls." And how hard she worked on those programs for the play. . . . Billy had his own course in English literature, which he peeked into when Mrs. Creeger wasn't looking. It was "Hunting and Fishing" magazine. . . . Patsy was our tall forward who really fought with vim and vigor for that ball. And how we envied her poise. . . . (Teacher to class): "Now, children, when we go into the auditorium, act like ladies and gentlemen, and don't laugh at a person when he gets up to talk. Wait until he tells a joke." (Pupil): "But suppose Tom Turner gets up; can't we laugh then?" Yes, Billy always made us laugh. . . . Joyce was one of our quieter seniors, who was always willing to help someone out. Remember her in the downstairs hall as a safety patroler?

GLADYS VAUGHAN
RUBY WHITE

MILDRED WARD
CONWAY WOOD

BILLY WARREN
JOYCE WOOD

JEAN WEAGLEY
FRED WRIGHT

Gladys' favorite subject was home economics. She is a Future Homemaker of America, and always had a kind word for anyone. . . . Mildred was noted for her impromptu remarks on any and every subject. She was always full of fun and foolishness. . . . Billy wouldn't have much trouble building a house. In making the scenery for the play, he showed that Mr. Berry's shop instruction hadn't been in vain. . . . Jean was so lively and quick, even if she didn't make much noise. She was always so polite. . . . Ruby always had a special deluxe ice cream cone at the Village Drug Store for any senior, and a smiling face and friendly word for everyone. . . . Conway looked so dignified with his undertaker's coat and bow tie. But don't think that he never got into mischief. . . . Joy was our cooperative typist for the 1946 HIGHLANDER. Her artistic traits should carry her far if she remains as interested in it as she was in school. . . . Fred was one partner in the great debating team of Wright and Litterer, not Inc. "Does a horse pull a wagon or push it?" As treasurer of the Senior Class he solved some of the weightiest financial problems in the history of Highland Springs High School.

CLASS HISTORY

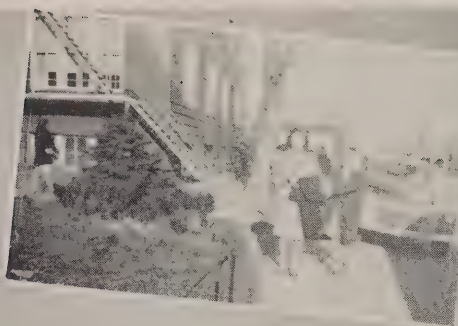

Seniors at last! What a wonderful title, and how we've struggled to attain it! For most of us, it represents eleven years of homework, "Goodmorning, teacher," tardy bells, and written excuses from home.

When we first bravely entered the portals of Highland Springs High School on September 10, 1942, literally scared to the bottoms of our boots, we acted as all freshmen in high school do . . . bewildered and very green about everything in connection with high school activities. But we soon became familiar with such terms as "SCA," "lab," "shop," "gym," "rat-hole," and, of course, the "office."

This being one of the first years of World War II, the SCA sponsored a war bond and stamp auction here at school, complete with an army jeep and driver, which we all enjoyed immensely. Mrs. Bonnet, whom few of us came to know very well, left this year, and when we returned as "gay young sophomores," Highland Springs had a new principal, Mr. J. Irving Brooks, Sr.

Now we began to really "change" classes and to take a more active part in the school life. But these days soon were only fond memories when we became "jolly juniors." We organized as a class for the first time on October 17, 1944, with Miss Martha Powell as our enthusiastic sponsor. Our hard-working officers were: Maxine Calhoun, President; Earlene Muire, Vice-President; Patsy Teasley Secretary; Jimmy Haun, Treasurer. Our class played a big part in the school this year. Some of us were officers and chairmen of SCA Committees, members of the newly organized National Beta Club chapter, the C4 Club, the Spanish Club, and many of us took part in athletics and received our letters. And how we worked on the Junior-Senior Dance in December! For most of us it was our first formal affair, so we worked long and hard to give the seniors something truly wonderful to remember us by. When May Day came, some of our Junior girls were in the Queen's Court.

Then on June 8, twelve junior boys and girls, as candlebearers, proudly preceded the grand old senior class of 1945 at the graduation exercises. . . . Now we were the Seniors of Highland Springs High School, and really proud of the name.

All our dreams in joyful anticipation were at last fulfilled. While still wondering how we had managed to become seniors so soon, we began making our home in the two rooms in the elementary building. . . . Paradise Lost . . . away from the rest of the high school. With Mrs. Louise Creeger as our wide-awake sponsor, and Linwood Layton, President; Earlene Muire, Vice-President; Norma Jean Davis, Secretary, and Fred Wright, Treasurer, we all went quickly to work to try to make our class the best one yet.

Our caps and gowns were ordered, and the HIGHLANDER staff organized to begin work immediately on a "cracker-jack" annual for the Class of '46. To help build our financial status and cooperative spirit, we presented "Almost Summer" on the nights of January 17 and 18, after four weeks of HARD work on the part of almost everyone in our class. The play went over with a "bang," and never will we forget the howls of delight which arose when Barbara kissed Walter! Nor will we forget the night after the play when Mrs. Creeger had that wonderful party for us at her home.

One of the most looked-forward-to events of the year was the Junior-Senior Dance in March. The unusual decorative effects really made the old gym quite unrecognizable, but very attractive. We could never begin to tell the juniors what a wonderful time we had!

Then came that night of nights, the long-awaited Senior Banquet, when we gravely turned our rings — signifying that we had at last reached one of our most highly cherished goals.

When finally that great day, June 10, came, and we realized we were really leaving school for the last time as pupils, a great thrill came over us, for a tremendous responsibility had been thrust on our shoulders . . . that of helping build a bigger and better world in which to live.

Now as we go out into the "wide, wide world" as young citizens with promising futures, we must continue to strive for the right things in life and learn to turn our backs on evil. For, Alma Mater, "Thy stories of valour urge them to stand strong."

S. C. A. OFFICERS

The Student Cooperative Association sponsors activities which enrich school life and develop school spirit. It promotes an interest in participating in all local, state and national efforts for peace. School activities, which include athletics, newspaper, auditorium programs and school improvement, are financed through the S. C. A.

Our governmental body is divided into various committees with one member from each homeroom represented on each committee. All members of the student body are eligible for membership and officers are elected annually by them.

Central Committee

The Central Committee, consisting of the four major officers and a representative from each homeroom, acts as an advisor to the various committees. The aims and purposes of this committee are: (1) To act as a clearing house for all extra-curricular problems. (2) To nominate S. C. A. officers and committee heads. (3) To arrange a social calendar for the year. (4) To budget S. C. A. money, and, also, to plan, with the help of the school, ways of making money. (5) To create new committees as needed or discontinue old ones if no longer needed. (6) To adopt policies as they seem needed, or to discard out-dated policies.

Our meetings were held twice a month. We attained almost 100 per cent membership, managed school finances, backed activities of all other committees, sponsored and financed a hand-book, and sponsored one party-dance for S. C. A. members.

Cafeteria Committee

The Cafeteria Committee was organized for the first time this year. Its purpose was to improve the order in the cafeteria and to make it a more attractive place in which to eat.

We made curtains for the windows under the direction of our sponsor, Miss Agee, and, with the cooperation of the students, were able to greatly improve the order on the steps and in the cafeteria line during lunch periods.

Since our work was completed in March, our committee met only when necessary.

Left to right: Betty Perry, Betty Tucker, Edward Timberlake, Thomas Atkinson, Ben Holzbach, Miss Agee, Sponsor; Maxine Calhoun, Chairman; Rose Femiani, Mary Satterwhite, Joyce Hall, Vivian Pearson.

Third Row: Beverly Hopkins, Bea Crabtree, Joyce Tiller, Jeanette Harris, Mildred Bottoms, Rachel Nolte, Mabel Robins, Grace Brandon, Frances Nolte, Jack Myers.

Red Cross Committee

Remember us? We're always asking for money and things. This year the Victory and Red Cross Committees were combined into one. Our Membership Drive brought in $26.90. We sold $385.65 in Victory Bonds and Stamps. From T. B. Christmas Seals, we collected $56 and from March of Dimes Drive we collected $37. For McGuire's Hospital we filled 18 Christmas stockings, collected playing cards, funny books, and many other things that the soldiers would enjoy. Twelve Christmas boxes were also filled for the European children.

Our main objective this year was serving McGuire's Hospital, under the leadership of our sponsor, Miss Flora Morris. Our chairman and secretary are Phyllis Nixon and Virginia Pack, respectively.

Service Committee

Chairman: JEWELL SLACHTER

Sponsor: MISS H. CAVANAUGH

Serving the school and alumni was the designated purpose of the Service Committee. We started the year off by writing letters full of news to our boys and girls in service. We sponsored a cheerful bulletin board for our classmates, took charge of the Patrick Henry Memorial Fund Drive, and managed a clothing drive for the needy Europeans. We sent cards to our friends who were sick or who lost members of their family.

The Committee had a very helpful and active sponsor this year, Miss H. Cavanaugh. We hope we can serve our school and alumni with new and better ideas in the future.

House and Grounds

The duty of the House and Grounds Committee is to keep the school and grounds as clean as possible, in cooperation with the student body. We did many things which we think made our school a nicer and cleaner place. The first of the year we had the entire school grounds cleaned and then asked that it be kept that way. We had a girl to keep the sick room bed linens clean. We ran a contest for the neatest and cleanest homeroom, which was won by Mrs. Creeger's room. The purpose was to show how nice the school room can look. Next, we had the Boys' Physical Education Classes wash the hall walls to get rid of all marks and dirt. Last, but not least, this year, the House and Grounds Committee made curtains for the infirmary and got a large glass top for the table.

Athletic Committee

The Athletic Committee did a great deal towards increasing school spirit and interest in all the games we sponsored — football, basketball, baseball, and track. We bought new uniforms for the football, baseball, and basketball teams, and in addition to that a set of boxing gloves to settle disputes! We sponsored all pep meetings and rallies, and awarded letters to all letter men and women. Also we advertised the games — supported the teams in every way possible, and entertained visiting teams.

Entertainment Committee

The School Entertainment Committee has been responsible for programs in the auditorium for the benefit of the student body. These programs have centered around various interests of the students. Sports played their part in football and basketball pep meetings and the awarding of letters at the close of the season. Thanksgiving, Christmas, and Easter programs were planned, with the traditional religious themes. Five professional entertainments were presented which the committee sponsored. Other assembly exercises were conducted by various groups and organizations, the topics being based on special interests and needs of the students. This committee was sponsored by Miss Waring, with Earlene Muire as chairman and Patsy Teasley as secretary.

Bulletin Board Committee

The purpose of the Bulletin Board Committee was to arrange attractive bulletin board displays.

We started out in the beginning with both experienced and inexperienced students in the field of art. With paint, brushes and colorful paper, we fulfilled our duty. Great was the imagination and originality of our group whenever we met to plan our boards.

We undertook the responsibility of displaying a colorful board on every holiday or special occasion. We appreciated the nice compliments individuals gave. This spurred us on to attempt larger and better boards.

Third Row: Billy Turner, Jo Bidgood, Roda Davis, Roberta Moore, Phyllis Hufner, Jerry Marshall, Betty Melton, Zelma Durette and Josephine Pack.

Library Committee

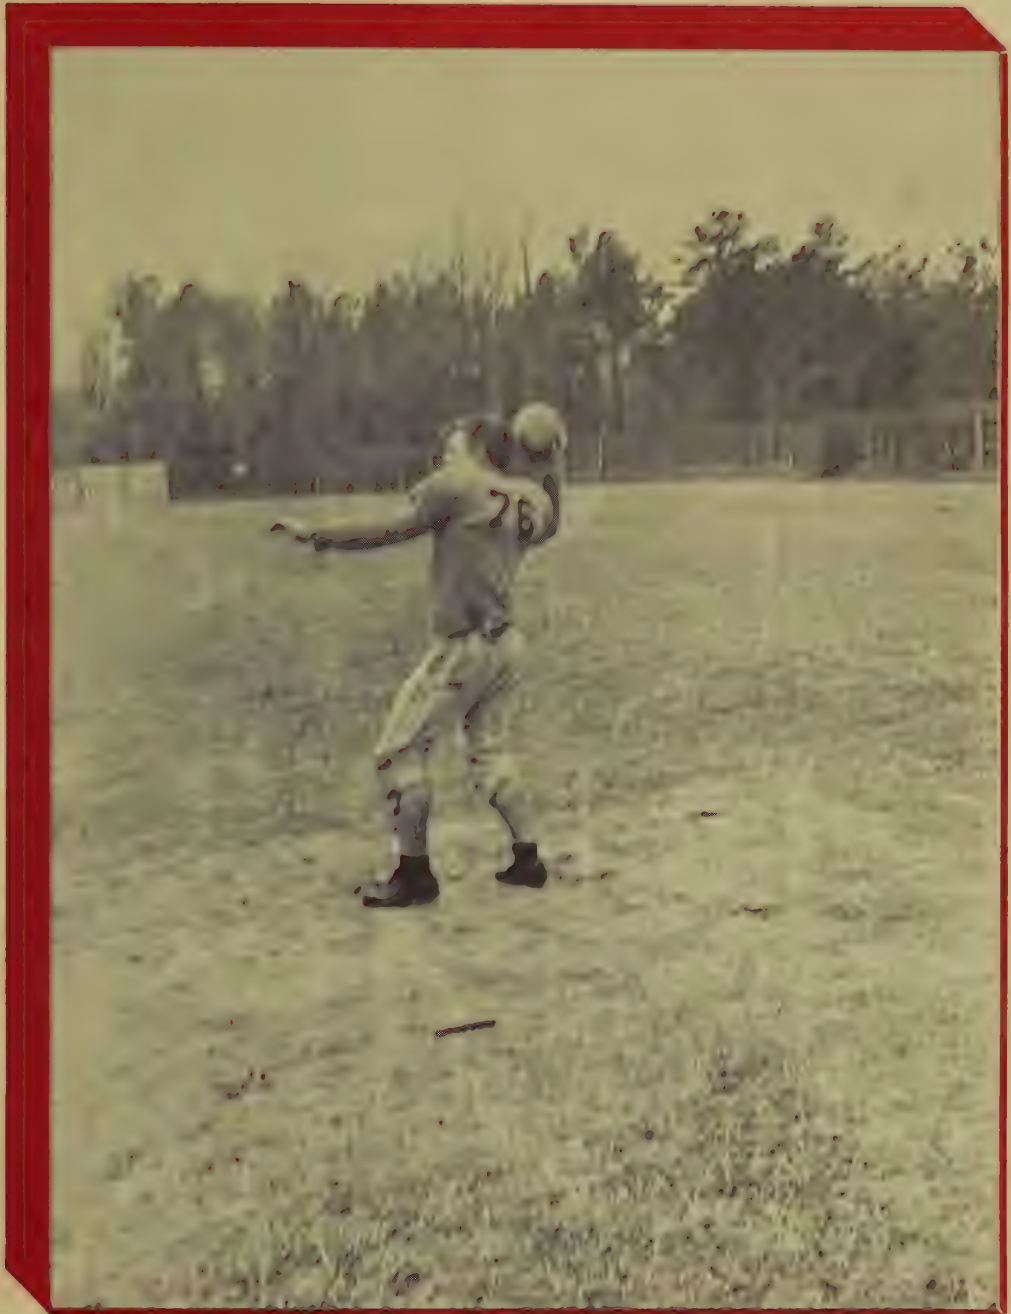

"Books are the quietest and most constant of friends; they are the most accessible and wisest of counsellors; and the most patient of teachers."

—CHARLES W. ELLIOT, THE HAPPY LIFE

The Library Committee's aim for the year has been to promote and encourage good reading. All students have been urged to take advantage of the wealth of material the Library offers. This year some four hundred and eighty dollars was spent on books. The books were secured with the cooperation of the P. T. A., and by the paper drive, sponsored by the Library. The Committee made the Library attractive and homelike, so as to promote student attendance and interest. Our chairman, Eva Frances Cook, and our sponsor, Mrs. Marks, untiringly worked to carry out the aims and objectives of our library committee.

Beta Club

The purpose of the Highland Springs Beta Club is to recognize the students who have outstanding school records, and to promote leadership and loyalty in the school. ● This year we presented a program in the auditorium for National Education Week and we gave the faculty a tea in the Home Economics Cottage. ● We planned another faculty-basketball game to raise funds, part of which was sent to the National Education Fund. A candle-light tapping ceremony was held the third Tuesday in March to invite new members into the Club.

C₃ M Club

$C_4 + M_{45} = C_3M$ — That's our full name, but we're called C3M for short. Oh, in case you're wondering, it stands for last year's chemistry club — C4 — plus the morons of 1945 — us — yields Cavanaugh's Craziest Chemical Mixture — C3M. • This year we had an assembly program, a bulletin board display, and sponsored a drive to make the public more cancer conscious. • Miss Doris Cavanaugh was our helpful sponsor, and our officers were: Charles Derr, President; Catherine Lipscomb, Vice-President; June Banks, Secretary; and David McChesney, Treasurer.

Los Diablos Espanoles

The Spanish Club, Los Diablos Espanoles, consisted of twelve members with Mrs. Louise Creeger as sponsor. We met every Friday during third period. • Our main purpose was to make us better acquainted with the history and customs of the Spanish-speaking peoples of the world. • Our officers were as follows: President, Mary Ellen Michaux; Vice-President, Frances Glass; Secretary, Joyce Tyler; Treasurer, Estelle Hicks.

Mrs. Creeger, Ruby White, Gwen Richards, Frances Glass, Beverly Walker, Joyce Tyler, Betty Clark, Mary Ellen Michaux, Walter Beninghove, James Cornell, Estelle Hicks.

Safety Patrol

The main duty of the Safety Patrol was to help maintain order and safety on the roads, in the halls, and on the school buses. The lieutenants and patrolmen were selected on the basis of leadership ability. With the help of our understanding sponsor, Miss Long, we endeavored to carry out the ABC of safety — "Always Be Careful." Officers: Miss Long, Sponsor; Charles Derr, Captain; June Banks, Lieutenant of Upper Hall Patrol; Mary Ellen Michaux, Lieutenant of Lower Hall Patrol; Maxine Calhoun, Lieutenant of Auditorium Patrol; Otis Stitzer, Lieutenant of Road Patrol; Gwen Richards, Lieutenant of Bus Patrol.

The Glee Club

The Glee Club has been functioning since January under the leadership of Mr. Perkins. Very much was accomplished this year. We were in the Christmas Play, helped the Beta Club, and we had the Thanksgiving program. We sang at a Methodist Church at Highland Springs. A group of girls went to McGuire General Hospital to entertain. • The officers of this club are: Director, Mr. Perkins; President, Charles Derr; Vice President, Zelma Durette; Secretary, Beverly Reynolds; Treasurer Virginia Fulwider; Program Chairman, Edith Gephart.

Hi-Times

An "S. O. S." was sent out at the first of the year for willing workers for the Hi-Times staff. By the time it was answered, it seemed that we had gotten a late start in the year, but we were still "ready, willing, and able." We set to work to try to keep the school up-to-date on the news and gossip. We started out with a staff, most of whom were inexperienced, but now nearly all know the fundamentals of newspaper work, and we are expecting great things from them next year. • Mrs. Gayle, our sponsor, helped us through a year that would have been more difficult if it had not been for her understanding of our problems.

La Petite Academie Francaise

"La Petite Académie Francaise" was organized February 7, 1946. The following officers were elected: Mary Alice Reyes, President; Carlton Mitchell, Vice President; Mary Ellen Michaux, Secretary; and Courtney Purvis, Treasurer. The club consisted of nineteen members and met every Friday during fifth period. Its purpose was to learn more about France and her customs. We selected "La Marseillaise," the French National Anthem, as our song, and perhaps you were near enough 101 to hear our voices raised in "Allons enfants de la patrie."

Future Homemakers of America

Future Homemakers of America was organized at Highland Springs High School November 1, 1945. The purpose of organizing this club was to offer opportunities for the further development of pupil initiative in planning and carrying out activities related to homemaking. • The objectives of this club for 1945-46 were to promote better home and family living, to sponsor a project of improving the homemaking cottage, to promote better health in home and school, and to provide wholesome individual and group recreation.

M-3 Club

M3!! Doesn't that name strike a familiar chord somewhere? If you were in Miss Morris' 4th period English you would know we were Morris' Marblehead Morons. Or probably you saw our pin-up girl, Jo Pack, and our pin-up boy, Sidney Alexander parading down the hall all decked out. • No doubt you saw the picture of our mascot, K-9M3, better known as Pete Poopendyke. • Our Program Committee spent many nights trying to think up embarrassing situations for the students on the program. Once Frank Sinatra and Bing Crosby (alias Clifford Johnson and John Bew) entertained us. • To all freshmen English students we advise you to take sophomore English under Miss Morris and organize a club, and you'll have the time of your life.

First Row (left to right): Mary Davis, Mary Frances Minson, President; Joyce Hall, Chairman of Program Committee; Betty Clark. Second Row: Jo Pack, Vice-President; Kathryn Williams, Doris Dawson, Julia Seward. Third Row: Margaret Fisher, Vivian Ward, Burke Owen, Barbara Jean May. Fourth Row: Naomi Toms, Jean Jinnett, Mildred Bottoms, Fitzhugh Mullins, Treasurer. Fifth Row: Ruth Smith, Rachel Nolte, Emily Brooks, Cliff Johnson. Sixth Row: George Childress, Jack Culbertson, Winifred Gordon, Marie Barnett, Ollie Mae Michaux, Mildred Sherer, Sidney Alexander, Jimmy Marshall. Standing: Miss Morris, Sponsor. Absent when picture was taken: Shirley Davis, Secretary.

Industrial Arts Club

The aims of the Industrial Arts Club this year were three-fold — to help our school, to help our community, and to help ourselves. Mr. Berry acted as our active sponsor. We went on five outings and a deer hunt. • Our officers for the year were: President, Albert Robins; Secretary, Thomas Gillie; Treasurer, George Gillen.

The 2y CC Club

The 2yCC — Second Year Commercial Club — is a brand new organization composed of the girls in the second year commercial work. It is our hope that the club will help us to improve our commercial skills, and that, as a club, we may help to make our school a still better one. • We cannot be serious all the time, however, so at the Junior Bazaar we had a little blue, pink, and white booth in which we sold ice cream — and a good time was had by all. The party at the home of our president, and, also, the pajama party given by one of our members will long be remembered. • We hope that we have started a club that will become a tradition and that the future members will have as much fun in it as we have.

Monogram Club

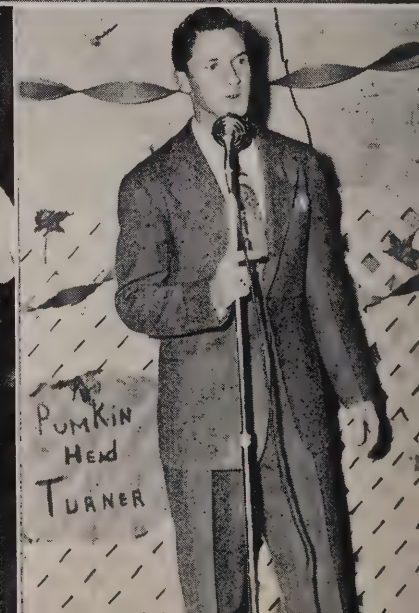

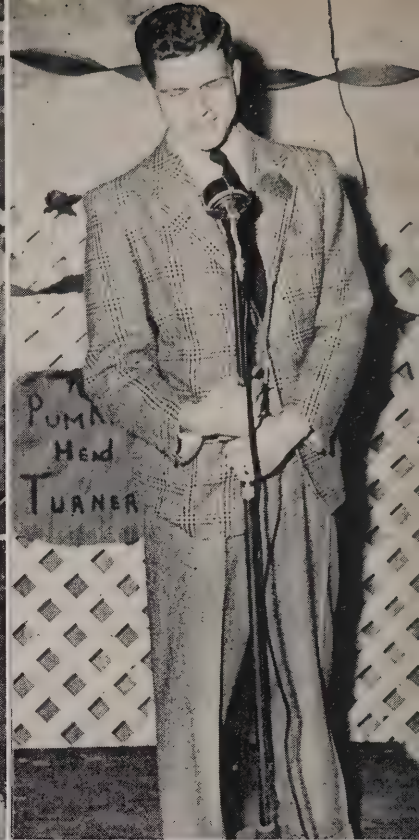

In order to aid and advance athletics in our school, we formed a club this year which we called the Monogram Club. ● The requirements for membership are that the boy has to have won a letter, played a certain amount of time in games, have the spirit of a true gentleman, have good graces, be on good terms with his teachers, and on the very best of terms with his fellow students. ● The boys who were picked to organize this club were old ballplayers and new members must pass the above requirements. They must also pass the approval of the members. ● With this organization we can bring together all the various teams and players which form the entire athletic activities of our school. ● The officers of this club are: Robert Needham, President; William Needham, Vice President; Robert Lanier, Secretary and Treasurer.

The Morris Club

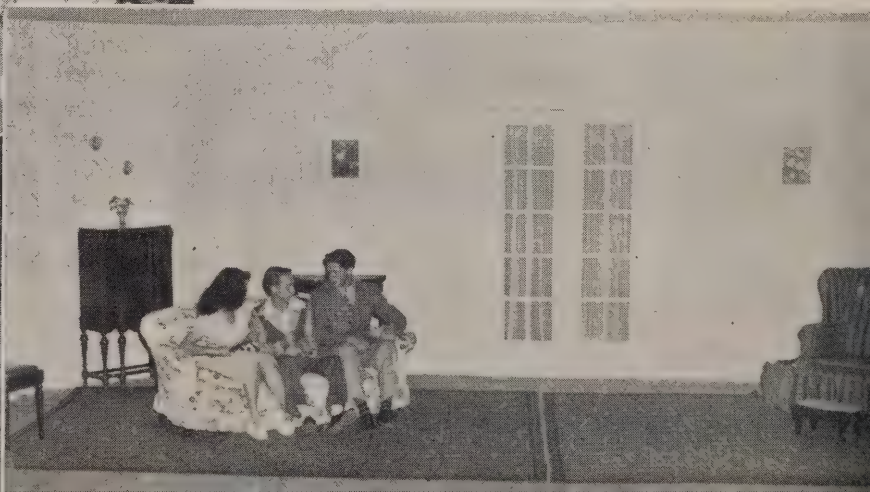

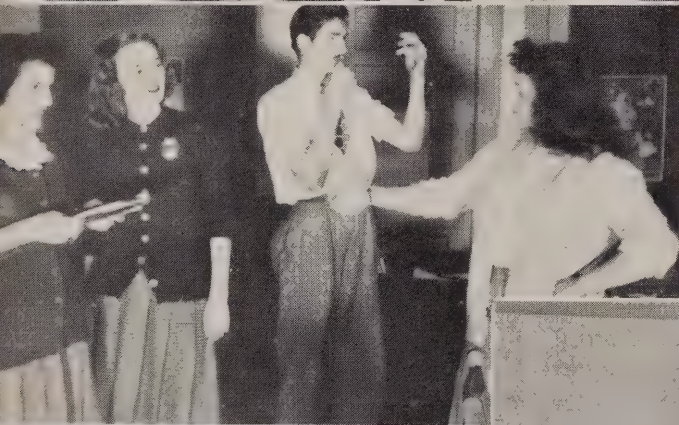

The Morris Original Rough and Ready Intelligent Students was organized on October 19, 1945. • Our mascot was "The Wolf," a drawing of a man in a zoot suit with a wolf's head. • The purpose of this club was to familiarize members with parliamentary procedure. • Ada Lee Carver was our pin-up girl and Billy Melton was our pin-up boy. • We met every Friday during fifth period in Room 110. Oral book reports, parties and games made up the programs. • Officers for the year were Earl Carver, President; Virginia "Neggie" Pack, Vice President; Ada Lee Carver, Secretary; and Billy Melton, Treasurer.

First Row (left to right): Peggy Crummett, Ada Lee Carver, Secretary; Billy Melton, Treasurer; Frances Coughlan, Clarence Nuckols, Margaret Kemp, Virginia Pack, Vice-President. Second Row: Eleanor Trudeau, George Stroud, Alta Mae Cook, Earl Carver, President; Betty Steigleder, Barbara Poole, Chairman of Program Committee; Floris Jeremy. JUNIOR SENIOR DANCE

I can hardly wait.

La-la-la, I'm singing in the bathtub.

It must look just right.

Women take so long.

Thank you so much.

At last we're off.

Oh, I'm so excited.

We're so glad you could come.

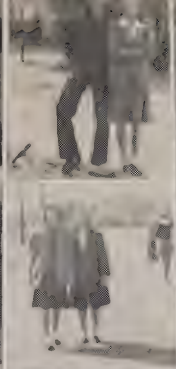

And then the Grand March, leis and all.

The music is heavenly.

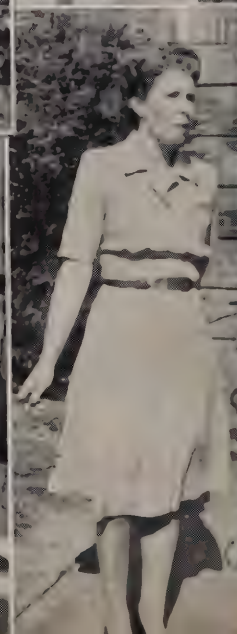

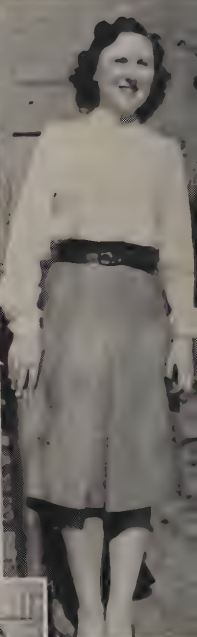

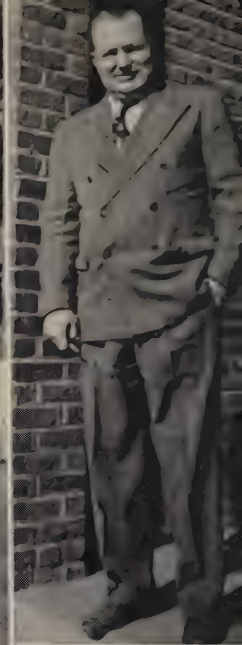

The Pause that Refreshes—between dances.

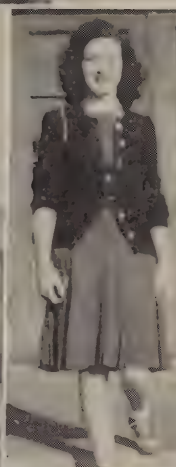

Why does it have to end so soon?

CHARTING A COURSE

IS JUST AS IMPORTANT IN YEAR BOOK PLANNING AS IN SAILING SHIPS. A WELL PLANNED COURSE WILL AVOID THE OBSTACLES EVER IN THE PATH OF THOSE WHO PROCEED WITHOUT ADVICE AND ASSISTANCE FROM EXPERIENCED PLANNERS. MANY YEARS OF ANNUAL PRINTING ENABLES US TO OFFER A HELPFUL SERVICE IN CHARTING A COURSE.
